CONSENT MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE BRIEF OF AIRPORT ATTORNEYS COALITION AS AMICI CURIAE IN SUPPORT OF APPELLEES

With consent of all parties, the undersigned members of a coalition of “airport attorneys” respectfully move this Court for leave to file a brief amici curiae in support of Plaintiffs-Appellees, and in opposition to the Defendants-Appellants’ request to lift the nationwide Preliminary Injunction issued against Executive Order No. 13,780 (2017) by the United States District Court for the District of Maryland. In support of this motion, proposed amici state as follows:

1. The amici submit this motion pursuant to Fed. R. App. P. 29(a)(2).

Counsel of record for parties have consented to the filing of the brief of amici.

2. Proposed amici are attorneys representing a range of legal backgrounds, specialties, and United States jurisdictions who gathered at international airports across the country to assist disenfranchised travelers affected by the travel bans. As the proposed amici and their clients are affected by the travel bans, the amici have one critical interest in common: averting the crisis caused by the issuance of the first travel ban and compounded by the issuance of the second.

3. Proposed amici have on-the-ground, first-hand experience with the legal chaos created by the implementation of the bans and their continuing effects on clients and travelers here and abroad. Proposed amici are familiar with the practical consequences of the ban to our clients and the practice of immigration law generally.

4. Proposed amici have a compelling shared interest in this case because a ruling in Defendants-Appellants' favor to lift the Preliminary Injunction would inflict irreparable harm to travelers' Constitutional rights, as well as to the ability of amici to effectively assist and counsel their clients. As attorneys, the amici must be able to effectively advise their clients regarding their status, legal rights, and available remedies. To do so, amici need 1) access to their clients when legal decisions are made that may have irrevocable consequences; and 2) confidence in settled immigration principles to counsel their clients on how best to protect their legal rights or status, and on how to move freely across borders so they can work and be with their families. The travel ban jeopardizes and disrupts these fundamental requirements for effective counsel.

5. As legal practitioners, proposed amici offer insight into a critical issue before this Court – namely, the ways in which the travel ban may infringe on the Constitutional rights of those attempting to cross the American threshold – citizens and non-citizens alike. Proposed amici are vitally interested in protecting the rights of those individuals.

6. The proposed amici curiae brief, attached to this motion as Exhibit A, explains how the second travel ban will harm amici and their clients, and how its re-implementation will infringe on Constitutional rights of certain travelers.

For the foregoing reasons, proposed amici respectfully request permission to file the proposed brief amici curiae in support of Plaintiffs-Appellees.
